

Aeronautical Engineer Officer

The Defence Forces now has an opportunity for an Aeronautical Engineer in the Air Corps. This is a vital position and we are looking for a highly motivated individual who can combine professional skills with leadership ability and embark on a career that is far from ordinary.

GENERAL QUALIFICATIONS

A candidate for appointment as an Aeronautical Engineer Officer must:
Possess the required professional qualifications
Be of the required standard of medical and physical fitness; and
Satisfy the Minister of Defence as to character.

AGE REQUIREMENTS

Candidates must be under 35 years of age on 30 April 2007.

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

A candidate for appointment as an Aeronautical Engineer Officer in the Air Corps must hold a third level Degree in Aeronautical Engineering which is recognised for Corporate membership in Engineers Ireland.

TERMS OF APPOINTMENT

Successful candidates will be appointed to the rank of Lieutenant.
Salary will commence at the fourth point of the Lieutenant scale.

The following are the current rates of pay and allowances payable to Aeronautical Engineers

RANK
Lieutenant

CLASS A PRSI (ii)
€46,061

Military Service Allowance

€4,870

APPLICATION FOR APPOINTMENT

All applications for appointment as Aeronautical Engineer Officer in the Air Corps must be made on the official application form. Completed application forms and accompanying C.V.'s must be returned no later than 1 May 2007 to: Officer in Charge, Recruitment & Competitions Office, D HRMS, Defence Forces Headquarters, Colaiste Caomhin, Glasnevin, Dublin 9 (Fax. 01-8042412)

Saol iomlán éagsúil

A life less ordinary

(01) 8042149, 8042144